It is, sir, the equality of the free and independent States which that instrument links together in a common bond of union-entire, absolute, complete, unqualified quality-equality as sovereigns, equality in their ghts, equality in their duties.

MEMPHIS, June 13, 1856. Messrs. Editors: When the news of the nomi nations of Buchanan and Breckinridge was receiv ed here, the Democracy signalized that event by firing one hundred and thirty-one guns, and by feeling good generally; but to-night we have had a glorious ratification meeting, at which the platform and candidates were enthusiastically adopted and indorsed. Judge Brown was chosen chairman of the meeting, with Vice Presidents, Secretaries, &c. After which Mr. Fowlkes read the platform. Judge Brown is a forcible speaker, and the Dem-campaign. Mr. Whitmore, from Mississippi, was then introduced to the assembly, and nobly did he respond to the call. His mind is clear and logical, and he discussed the political issues with great ability; George Mellus says that those persons who were the meeting, established a favor that will increase, should he visit us again.

Mr. Wm. T. Avery, an "Old-Line Whig," was next called to the stand. He has just returned from the Cincinnati Convention, and gave his hearty and enthusiastic support to the Democrative the Saviour of men, be aroused from her slumbers, and cry, "Peace, be still?" he had seen men from every State of the Union the country with hope. Like the bow assembled at the Convention, and that there was looks out from the storm, it tells us that the no division as to the platform-all were national. He is an eloquent orator, and the Democracy will not forget him.

Mr. Hindman, of Arkansas, was loudly called for, and although weak from his recent rencounter. could not forbear to make a few pertinent and sensible remarks. It is to be hoped he will soon ecover sufficient strength to encounter Know-Nothingism and rout it in that good old Democratie State of Arkansas.

H. B. S. Williams now took the stand (Old-Line Whig) and cordially united with the Democratic party for the preservation of the Union, and to war against Black Republicanism.

Mr. Silman and our eloquent sub-elector clos ed the speeches for the evening. It was a glorious meeting, and grave promise of a rich harvest see, three thousand majority for "Old Buck and Breck," when the ides of November roll around. Our city is rather dull now as to amusementsno theater, no concerts, no nothing. However, we had rather an amusing exhibition to-night, something after the school-boy style. A renegade preacher, so I am informed, despairing of any success against the Pope in a religious controversy, was here diving in the muddy pool of politics; that is to say, was making a funny sort of speech. I got within hearing about that interesting period, where he made a tremendous leap out of the church and the Democratic party simultaneously, tore his trowsers, and declared emphatically he was right thar, which was evident. And if his maternal ancestor was aware of his absence from home, it is presumed that she has ere this reclaimed him.

The real estate market is still active. This has been an unusually active season in transactions of that description.

Having earnestly advocated a union of parties at the South, that the sound men at the North might thereby be strengthened and encouraged at home in resisting Abolition fanaticism; and believing that this object can best be accomplished under the prestige of the Democratic name, and upon the plaiform, and with the nominees of the Cincinnati Convention, we are prepared to give them our hearty and cordial support, leaving it to others to consult their prejudices, and cavil at small thingsif they

In recommending, however, the nominees of the Cincinnati Convention to the confidence and support of our readers, we are influenced by no want of regard for the soundness, integrity, and pure national character of Mr. Fillmore. But he is not now, and we think will not be, a candidate before the people at the approaching election. Under proper circumstances, there is no man in the country whom we would support more willingly for the Presidency; but believing, as we do, that the contest is between the Democratic party and the Black Republicans, and that the running of a third candidate would inure to the success of the GENTLEMEN: Your favor of the 7th, inviting me address a meeting to be held in the Park to norrow evening, to respond to the nomination f James Buchanan for President, and John C. New York, Wednesday, June 11, 1856. GENTLEMEN: Nothing could be better than the ction of the Cincinnati Convention, and my heart will be with the great company which will assem ble in the Park this evening, to respond to the nomination of James Buchanan, of Pennsylvania and John C. Breckinridge, of Kentucky. We have a platform as broad as the Union, and candidates who are not only above reproach, but emin-ently qualified for the stations which they are to occupy. And, besides, the foundation has been laid for the cordial re-union of all that is sound in the Democratic party, and the places of the few who have gone over to the enemy will be much that his own sales have reached over six hundred thousand delars since the first of January This is ters, who see nothing but danger to the country is the movements of their former associates, and ar resolved to stand fast by the Constitution. Le us hear no more by way of repreach about "Hards' and "Softs" and former dissensions, but buckle or our armor and contend manfully for the principles which lie at the foundation of the national com-pact. We shall then not only deserve, but shal achieve a noble victory.

Respectfully yours,

$150,000 Worth of Property Destroyed liquor and wine depot and rectifying establish-ment of Houseman, Smith & Co., took fire and was entirely consumed, with most of its contents. After the upper stories were burned, and while the fire was still in progress, the south wall fell upon the roof of W. S. Gilman & Co.'s greeny and Commission store, and crushed it in.

The flames next spread through the roof to the djoining building on the north, occupied by Brown, Goddin & Co., but by the exertions of the firemen, the building and contents were saved with but little loss. The second building on the orth, occupied by Berthold, Berneduy & Co. fared worse; being entirely destroyed, with all it contents. Fortunately, the flames were arrested at this point, and the adjoining houses on each ide escaped without damage.

The houses and merchandise were all insured and, with one exception, to an amount which will cover the loss. Houseman, Smith & Co., were insured for $20,000; $5,000 each in the United States, America, Merchants' and Phoenix Insurance offices. Their loss is estimated at $30,000. W. S. Gilman & Co., were insured as follows: Citizon's, Home Mutual, and Missouri State Mutual, each, $10,000; Phoenix, Lumbermen's, Atlan tic Mutual, Mound City, and United States, each $5,000. Total $55,000. We are informed by Mr Gilman that the loss will not vary $1,000 either way from the amount of insurance.

Brown, Goddin & Co. were insured for $10,000 in two offices, and their loss will not exceed $2,000 Berthold, Benoudy & Co. were insured in the Citizens' for $10,000, and the United States for $5,000. They are unable to say at present whether their loss will exceed or fall short of the insurance, but it cannot vary much either way. The building occupied by Houseman, Smith & Co. belonged to P. A. Sarpy; that occupied by W. S. Gilman & Co. was owned by themselves. The other two belonged to Colonel Brant. They were all insured in various offices for their full value.

The books and papers of all the houses were saved uninjured, so far as the value of the contents is concerned, but the books of Houseman Smith & Co. (where the hettest fire was) were charred on the covers, so as to reader them useles in future. The origin of the fire is unknown a esent, but is supposed to have been the result eid ent.

Defendant proved that his partner executed the notes used on to plain-tiffs in exchange for the notes of plaintiffs of the ame date and amount as those sued on, and dis-counted plaintiffs' notes and used the money for his individual purpose, and all this without Shreve's knowledge; that defendants' firm was in good credit, and could have commanded, at any part of the corn was received and paid for.

Defendant deried the allegations of the plain ffs. Forty or fifty depositions were read by plaintiffs, amongst others one taken by defendant of a witness then in court, in obedience to a sub-pens. To the reading of this deposition deendant objected, but the court allowed it to be sad, and defendant excepted.

LAW SCHOOL

Hon. William F. Bulliock, Professor of the Law of Real Property and of the Practice of Law, including Pleading and Evidence.

The Students are arranged in two classes, senior and junior, according to their proficiency. Each class is required every day to study a lesson in a text book, and instruction is given on the lesson by examination, recitation, and a commentary from the Professor attending for the day. Each Professor attends the classes in the lecture-room, two days in each week, about four hours.

The Students in the Law Department of the University are entitled to atten i, without charge, the lectures in the Medical Department on Chemistry and Anatomy. By statute, a diploma of this School is a license to practice Law in all the Courts of this Stare.

A larse Library has been procured, to which additions are annually made.

Relief & Employment Association.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

We again call upon all the females that are able to work, and whom we assisted last winter, to come to our Sewing School, on the west side of Fifth cross street, 3d door from Green, towards Walnut street. As many stated to us that the want of work compelled them to ask us for aid, we have repared employment for all. Our great object is o do a permanent good, not by furnishing them, winter after winter, with fuel and provisions, but by teaching them to sew until they are so thoroughly skilled in the use of the needle, that they can teach their own daughters and make thom all good scamstresses, and all of them become active operatives, and useful, independent members of ciety. We ask nothing for instruction, but, on the contrary, we will pay the cash for all they do, and will let them have greeries by the small at wholesale prices; and if they cannot earn enough while they are learning to support themselves, we will give them additional aid. We are offered sewing for a whole year, from one house, for one hundred good scamstresses, and they would rather hundred good seamstresses, and they would rather pay a high price than a low one, if they could got eir sewing done well.

All those that have entered the school with a full determination to learn are making rapid pro-grees; their work passes inspection, and they are delighted with their prospects. We sincerely hope that all will accept our offer, and permit us to ele vate them above want, by placing in their hands an inexhaustible capital that will hereafter ren-der them independent. But if they refuse to go to work, it will be altogether useless for them ever suffering as they were last winter, when we assisted them, to deny them, yet we will be constrained to it, for we cannot reconcile it to our feelings doit; for we take the broad ground that all those that are able to labor, and refuse to work, are unworthy of help.

An Incident.—Yesterday there came to our knowledge the particulars of an interesting little incident that recently transpired on the suspen-sion bridge, which swings between Covington and It is said to be veritable, and it so

A middle-aged man (his name for obvious rea-sons we suppress) who had of late been considera-bly addicted to inebriation, went to the bridge at the mid hour of night with the express intention of throwing himself therefrom and changing this for another existence. Arriving at the end of the for another existence. Arriving at the end of the bridge on the Newport side, he fancied he saw in the shadow of one of the towers or piers the skirt of a woman's dress. Gallant to the last, despite his own suffering condition, he approached the pier, and sure enough he there discovered a woman agonizing with the pages of child-birth. Forgetting his purpose to destroy himself, or concluding to dofer its execution to some more favorable opportunity, he ran for assistance, which happily he soon obtained, and returned assisting to remove the woman and the new candidate for misery to more comfortable quarters, and becoming interested in his charge indefinitely postponed.

PRESH TEAS. JUST RECEIVALES, in store and for sale by ABM. FONDA, $5 Fourth st. ing interested in his charge indefinitely postponed the deed he had contemplated and so nearly car-ried into effect. The strangest part of the story remains to be told. In that woman he soon discovered, or fancied he discovered, "the very looks and lips and eyes predestined to have all his sighs." In other words, he told the tale of his misfortunes, and he "loved her in that she pitied him," while her story was so replete with woe, and withal so sweetly told that involuntarily he found she had stolen his heart. He proposed to marry her, to unite their fortunes in hopes to double their joy and diminish their sorrows. She accepted him, and Tuesday witnessed their union.

SAD OCCURRENCE .- On Saturday, the 7th inst as a party of young men were bathing in Fish Lake, one of their number, named Walton, had wentured some distance from the bank, and when within a few yards of the shore, on his return, was observed to swim round and round in a strange manner. He gave no alarm, but one of his companions on shore noticed that his mouth was un-der water, and immediately started to his relief. Before reaching him, however, he suddenly sank, and in spite of every effort to recover him, per-ished beneath the waters. His body was not re-covered till Sunday morning.—Columbus Citizen.

"By Hook or by Chook."—Hook and Crook were two famous surveyorrs of the city of Lon-don; and after the city had been desolated by the plague, and the great fire, about the year 1866, it was by the aid of Hook or Crook most of the titles to property were established, and the old land-marks renewed. Every claim was settled either "by Hook or by Crook," and this became a proverb

OR. BLACKWELL'S ARSAPARILLA AND VERSICOLA, Forthe cure of Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheu-

atism, and Blood Impurities generally. MIDDLETOWN, JEFFERSON Co., Ky., Aug. 13, 1855. Dr. Vaughan-Dear Sir: In the summer of 1852 1 had a young black boy, about two years old, severely afflicted with an eruptive disease of some kind. His whole body, and more especially his head, arms, and legs, were one ass of running matter. I had lost two children about the same age, and of the same parents, with the same kind of cruptions, and I felt surethis one would also die; but, luckily, I was recommended to use your "Dr. Blackwell's Barsaparilla and Versicola," which I am happy to inform you, from the use of some uve or six bottles, entirely cured him.

Respectfully yours, ALLEN MINOR.
LOUISVILLE, KY., March 31, 1855. Dr. VAUGHAN-Dear Sir: I have used "Dr. Black. well Sarsaparilla and Versicola" for a chronic disease of the stomach and liver, with severe constipation of thebowels and tendency of the blood to the head. I take great pleasure in recommending it as a superior alterative and blood purifier. It acts as a gentle cathartic, and is pleasant to the taste.

MR. BUCHANAN'S ANSWER.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.

Mr. Buchanan's letter in response to the nomination is published this morning. After expressing his gratification entertained at this high political horor, he says he is deeply sensible of the vast and varied responsibilities, and especially at the present crisis. He has carefully refrained from seeking the nomination by word or deed, and accepts it with diffidence, trusting, if elected, to be able to allay domestic strife, preserve peace and friendship with foreign nations, and promote the best interests of the Republic. He accepts in the same spirit the platform, and will confine himself to it throughout the canvass, believing that he has no right, by answering interrogatories, to present new and different issues before the peoof the country, to overthrow all sectional parties, restore peace, friendship, and mutual confidence, among all members of the confederacy." ROESBERG'S

an be procured, to which point, as well as to BALTIMORE, it is the SHORTEST, MOST DIRECT, and in every re spect the most reliable route. It is the only route by which purchasers of through tickets to NEW YORK are enabled to reach the cities of BALTIMORE. PHILADELPHIA and NEW YORK, and NEW YORK, at the cost of a ticket to New York only, thus enabling business men and travelers for pleasure or information, to visit four of the principal cities in the Union for LESS COST THAN CAN BE OFFORDED BY ANY OTHER ROUTE.

In a idition to these great advantages, the inducement offered to travelers in the promot and official management of trains on this route must not be lost sight of; added to which the grandeur of the scenery of localities, to be met with in traversing the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, are such as are afforded by no other line of travel in the world.

PASSENGERS GOING EAST from Louisville, may proceed by the U. S. mail steamers to Cincinnati, and there take the railroad to connect with this line, or may leave Louisville by the Jeffersonville Railroad direct, arriving in time to connect with either the 6.4 M., 10.4 M., or 6 P. M. train of the Little Miami Railroad for Colombus, connecting there with the Central Ohio Railroad through Newark and Zanesville for Bel Air, on the Ohio, four miles from Wheeling, from this place the connection with the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad is made direct. At Wheeling, or Benwood, four miles below Wheeling, the passenger takes the superior cars of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad which leave three times daily—at 7:30 A. M., 4:30 P. M.; and 10 P. M.—for Baltimore Washington. Philadelphis and New York, making close and sure connections to all points, East and south. For safety, speed, regularity, beauty of the country and gene alcomfort, this road is second to none in the Union. By the Express Train of this route the time from Cincinnati to Baltimore is but 20½ hours, and to Washington is but 27½ hours.

2.7 Baggage checked through from Cincinnati to Baltimore and Washington City.

2.8 Passengers should be particular and inquire for tockets via COLUMBUS and WHELING, as no other route can recover through Baltimore or Washington City to New York, their representations to the contrary notwithstanding. THREE DAILY TRIANS.

Fare as low as by any other route.
